'I have recommended it to my adult students'

Robyn Kellock-Floyd's review on Good Reads 5 stars

If the current lockdowns have given you time to pause and reflect on that book you have been meaning to write then 'Complete your book in a year' will get you started. Full of practical advice from a well known author who has written in a number of genres; it will inspire you to stop procrastinating and start writing. I have recommended it to my adult students.
