

Hijabi Girl

Good Reads Review 4 stars by Joanna.

All the Differences Make No Difference.

I enjoyed reading this book for primary school-aged kids. It addressed all sorts of real-life things that children have to deal with, from being new at school and not having a lot of money in the family to being cheated off at people not pronouncing your name properly and having different talents to others in your class.

A lot happens in the book: naughty boy brings his pet rat to school, new student begins, teacher organises class to be part of the book character parade, kids talk about the food they eat (Halal, Vietnamese) and it all happens in the very familiar environs of an Australian school.

All the differences make no difference, in a way.

Lovely. #diversitymatters

Co-Authors: Hazel Edwards & Ozge Alkan

Illustrator: Serena Geddes

Publisher: BookPOD, RRP $15 print RRP e-book $5.00

Format: Paperback & e-book

ISBN: 9780994358356

For ages: 7-12

Type: Junior Fiction